City Sergeant, High Constable. The Convention will be held to-morrow night at So'clock at the Exchange Hotel.

Young Men's Christian Association .- At he annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, held on Tuesday evening, the President (Mr. Leroy S. Edwards) delivered his annual address, from which it appears the Association has rapidly increased its membership during the past year, and has now upon its rolls 753 names. From its ibrary about 1,200 volumes are issued every month, and 100 persons visit their rooms daily. During the past winter eleven lectures have been delivered under the auspices of the Association by gentlemen of eminence in literature and science.

Addresses were made by Rev. J. Z. Tyler and J. B. Watkins, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President: L. S. Edwards.

Vice-Presidents: W. C. Mayo, J. H. Blair, W. T. Daniel, J. T. Eilyson, and C. P. Rady Librarian : J. W. Cringan. Corresponding Secretary: Furman Tup-

Recording Secretary: R. R. Gwathmey. Registrar: E. M. Crump. Treasurer: W. Minor Woodward.

Directors: Thomas Potts, C. W. Macfar lane, S. H. Hawes, E. Jeter Bosher, and W. N. Jones.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN JEFFERSON WARD .- At a meeting of the Conservatives of Jefferson Ward, residing on Union Hill and vicinity, Captain Elijah Baker presiding. a committee consisting of Messrs. William H. Cullingsworth, A. F. Bagby, William H. Lowry, John Minson, and William E. Davis, was appointed to attend the ward meeting to be held to-night and urge the nomination of Joseph M. Newell and F. C. Brauer as the representatives of the people of Union and Church Hills in the City Council. Resolutions were adopted urging the citizens in that part of the ward to attend the meeting and contend for their rights in the selection of candidates, and expressing unqualified adherence to the great principles upon which the Conservative party is based. The chairman of the meeting was added to the above committee. John Minson, Esq, acted as COMMENCEMENT CELEBRATIONS AT RANDOLFE MACON COLLEGE.—The anniversary celebrations of the Franklin and Washington Societies of Randolph Macon College will take place on the 24th and 25th of June. The president elect of the Franklin Society is J. Mortimer Kilgour, of Virginia; orators, J. B. Powell, of Alabama, and W. F. Tillett of North Carolina ; marshals, B. J. Baldwin, Jr., Alabama; F. T. West, Jr., of Virginia, and J. C. Rosser, of Virginia. The president elect of the Washington Society is A T. Bledsoe, of Maryland; orators, J. B. McCabe, of Virginia, and W. L. Richardson, of Virginia; marshals, E. L. Carter, of Virginia; Thomas Carroll, Jr., of North Carolina, and J. H. Gray, of Virginia. The address before the two societies will be delivered by Hon. David Clopton, of Alabama.

WASHINGTON LITERARY SOCIETY .- The very interesting public debate which was had by this society at Trinity church recently was largely attended. In fact the church was crowded, and the audience must have been highly entertained and pleased with the discussion. Messrs. W. E. Howle, George W. Ettenger, William E. Woody and John W. Curry, took part in it. The ceremonies on the occasion were opened with prayer by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. C. Bledsoe, Mr. S. M. Gary introduced the orator of the evening, Mr. R. T. Styll, and after he had concluded his address the discussion commenced. All of the gentlemen acquitted themselves satisfactorily, and it is probable that the society will at no distant day entertain their many friends again by a public celebration.

DROWNED .- Yesterday morning about 10 clock two colored men residing on this side of the river, and employed at the Westham M. E. JONES, New Canton, BuckingING SLATES and SLATE FLAGGING. The firm
